Overview

Junior Achievement programs offer a multidisciplinary approach that connects learning across social studies disciplines, such as economics, geography, history, government, and civics, while incorporating mathematical concepts and reasoning and language arts skills. This list is not meant to be exhaustive or intended to suggest that a JA program will completely address any given standard but is designed to show how it can enhance or complement efforts to do so. The flexibility of the programs and supplementary materials allow specific content or skills to be addressed in depth by the teacher and/or business volunteer as needed.

In this document, Junior Achievement programs are correlated to the North Carolina Social Studies Standards, North Carolina Guidance Essential Standards, and various CTE standards as appropriate, well as the Common Core State Standards in English/ Language Arts and Mathematics. The Essential Standards are assessed by developmental levels- Readiness (R), Emergent (E), Progressing (P), Early Independent (EI), Independent (I)

Alternate delivery methods, such as student self-guided, cover the same learning objectives for social studies standards and the JA Pathway Competencies. However, the varied implementation models may cause slight variation in English Language Arts and Mathematics correlations.
